Alumni and their impact

Jhimus
Balane Barrios, Philippines

He initiated a formation and youth catechesis (YOUCAT) program in his parish. Seeing the good impact of the formation after 18 months, the Bishop recommended that he implement it in all the parishes in the Diocese.

She spearheaded a women empowerment program for 24 marginalised women in a rural town. At the end of two years, the project resulted not only in an increase of financial income for the women, but also the growth of a community of families.

Battugs Tsagaach
(Tugso), Mongolia

Kanha Khun, Cambodia

She introduced programs and animation for teenagers in 45 communities in Phnom Penh Diocese. Over time, these youth have developed their sense of belonging to their communities, and are now participating actively in church activities.

He is the project manager for a livelihood cum education project for poor villagers in Te Gyi (near Mandalay, Myanmar). Since the launching of the project, the children of the village are beginning to experience success in passing the state exams, which was previously unheard of.

Ye Tun Lin
(Martin), Myanmar

Building Leaders for a changing world

The Institute of Formation Fondacio Asia (IFFAsia) is committed to forming young adults, professionals and lay leaders from all backgrounds. The program is designed to equip them with competencies to become initiators and leaders of projects and missions in Church or Society by harnessing their potentials to act for the common good.

Formed more than 180 young adults from 13 countries since 2006
